This album is a collection of songs that were recorded before I used «Cloud Mouth» as my moniker. For a while I recorded under «Bird Dog». These songs were carved from chunks of musical growth that I began propagating and harvesting in about my 7th year of life.

I chose to carve each of these musical pieces with an old, dull, rusty saw (circa 50s–60s). This saw used to be my father's. The songs were recorded, albums compiled, given away, and eventually forgotten. Until one day. I decided to dig into the bowels of my music chair and found a couple of dusty old masters labeled «Happily Finite» and «Sewer Songs».
